

We are writing this message to express our disgust and disappointment with the superbowl halftime show recently aired on CBS. The public airways were violated with images which should never have been allowed on public television, especially during an event such as the superbowl. Please investigate and hold accountable those responsible.